The Bank will only act as the Customer's agent and will not assume, or be deemed to have assumed, any additional obligations to, or have any special relationship with the Customer, other than those for which specific provision is made in these Terms and Conditions.

31.2 As the Customer's agent, the Bank shall, during the tenure of the deposit, have the following power and authority:

- (a) To do and execute all acts with respect to the purchase of the Commodity on a cash basis ('Purchase Transaction(s)') through purchase agreements, certificates and other instruments as fully as the Customer could do himself/itself and to negotiate with commodity traders or supplier and execute all acts on behalf of the Customer in relation thereto; and
- (b) To sell the Commodity on deferred payment terms to the Bank at cost plus profit (the 'Murabahah Sale Price') on behalf of the Customer and to do and execute all acts in relation thereto ('Sale Transaction(s)').

31.3 Upon payment of the commodity price by the Bank, as agent of the Customer, the Bank gives a promise (Wa'ad) to the Customer to purchase the Commodity from the Customer under a Murabahah contract on deferred payment basis.

31.4 Subsequently, the Bank will pay the Customer the security deposit ('Security Deposit') in the amount that is equivalent to the profit to be derived from the Commodity Murabahah Transactions or any other amount as may be agreed by both parties. The Security Deposit is intended to secure the performance of the Bank's promise (Wa'ad) under Clause 31.3. The Security Deposit and the commodity price under Clause 31.3 shall be immediately payable to the Bank on the earlier of (i) the date of termination of the CMD-i Account and/or FD-i Account pursuant to Clauses 29.10, 29.11 or otherwise and (ii) the maturity date, provided that the Bank has performed its promise (Wa'ad) under Clause 31.3. The Bank reserves the right to set-off (a) the amount of the Security Deposit refundable by the Customer to the Bank against the amount of the profit derived from the purchase of the Commodity payable by the Bank to the Customer and (b) the amount of the commodity price refundable by the Customer to the Bank pursuant to the payment made by the Bank on behalf of the Customer under Clause 31.3 against the cost portion of the Murabahah Sale Price equivalent to the commodity price payable by the Bank to the Customer pursuant to the Sale Transaction(s).

31.5 For cases where the Customer pays the deposit amount by way of cheque, the Security Deposit will only be paid by the Bank to the Customer upon clearance of the cheque.

31.6 Clauses 31.4 and 31.5 shall only apply where the Customer opts for payment of the Security Deposit on the date of the deposit.

31.7 The Bank will, in carrying out or effecting the Purchase Transaction(s) and/or Sale Transaction(s) as agent of the Customer, act in good faith and in the best interests of the Customer. Nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall require the Bank to act in any manner which is detrimental to its interests or which is contrary to any law or Regulation.

31.8 The Customer shall indemnify the Bank against all actions, suits, proceedings, costs (including legal fees), claims, demands, charges, expenses, losses, damages and liabilities howsoever arising brought or claimed by any party and/or incurred or sustained by the Bank as a result of the Purchase Transaction(s) and/or the Sale Transaction(s) as agent of the Customer or a breach by the Customer of his obligations herein. The indemnity in this Clause 31.8 shall survive the termination of any agency relationship between the Bank and the Customer, and any sums payable in relation thereto shall not be subject to any deduction whether by way of set-off, counterclaim or otherwise.

32. Profit Rate/Profit Payment

32.1 Notwithstanding Clauses 31.4 or 31.5, the Bank may at the instruction of the Customer pay the profit from the Commodity Murabahah Transactions to the Customer directly or upon maturity of the tenure as the case may be. If the profit is to be paid on monthly basis, the amount to be received by the Customer is equivalent to the profit amount on lump sum basis or six (6) monthly as the case may be.

32.2 The Bank will purchase the Commodity from the Customer on the basis that all payments to be made by the Bank as purchaser to the Customer pursuant to any Sale Transaction shall be made without any set-off or counterclaim (save in accordance with Clause 31.4), and in immediately available and transferable funds for good value on the due date thereof to the account of the Customer with the Bank that the Customer shall from time to time notify the Bank.

32.3 If any payment due from the Bank as purchaser under any Sale Transaction falls on a day which is not a Business Day, the payment shall be made on the next succeeding Business Day save where the next succeeding Business Day falls in the next calendar month, in which event the payment shall be due and made on the Business Day immediately preceding the due date. Both the Bank and the Customer acknowledge and agree that the Bank's obligation under a Sale Transaction is to pay to the Customer the Murabahah Sale Price (comprising cost and profit) on the maturity date or for cases where the Customer opts for payment of the Security Deposit, to pay the Murabahah Sale Price less the Security Deposit which has been paid on the date of deposit or the date on which the relevant cheque is cleared.

32.4 In the event of occurrence of any of the termination events as specified in Clause 29.10 or the Customer makes an early demand for the payment of Murabahah Sale Price before the maturity date of the deposit, the Customer agrees that the Bank is entitled to pay an amount which is less than the agreed Murabahah Sale Price (after deducting the Security Deposit), based on the following:

- (a) if the tenure of deposit is 3 months and below, early withdrawal will be allowed by the Bank subject to the Customer's agreement to provide rebate/ibra' in which case no profit shall be paid;
- (b) if the tenure of deposit is 4 months and above, and withdrawal is made before completion of 3 months, the Customer agrees to provide rebate/ibra' in which case no profit shall be paid;
- (c) other than the above circumstances, if withdrawal is made before maturity, the Customer agrees to provide rebate/ibra' based on the following formula:

Rebate/Ibra' = Murabahah Sale Price - [(P x R% x t/T) + P]
Murabahah Sale Price = Principal + Profit (upon maturity or upfront)
P = Principal (amount of deposit)
R = Board rate (%)
t = Tenure (based on completed months rounded down to completed quarters)
T = Total number of months in a year

32.5 The Customer hereby agrees that the Bank's determination of any amount payable to the Customer under CMD-i Account and/or FD-i Account save for manifest error shall be final, conclusive and binding against the account holder.

33. Miscellaneous

33.1 When the Customer withdraws or transfers all monies credited to the CMD-i Account and/or FD-i Account, the respective CMD-i Account and/or FD-i Account will be automatically closed.

33.2 The Customer agrees that the Bank reserves the right to close any account at the absolute discretion of the Bank without the necessity to give any reason, by giving notice to the Customer.

33.3 The Customer shall comply with all the Bank's requirements, if any, for the closure of the account.

33.4 The Customer and the Bank agree that no proceeds from the sale of the Commodity or any transactions contemplated herein shall be invested in any non-Shariah compliant securities or financial instruments.

33.5 These Additional Terms and Conditions governing CIMB Commodity Murabahah Deposit-i Account and/or CIMB Fixed Deposit-i Account are intended to be wholly Shariah-compliant. The Customer and the Bank agree that their respective rights and obligations herein are intended to be and subject to and in conformity with Shariah (such Shariah as determined by the Shariah Committee of the Bank). The parties hereto hereby irrevocably, unconditionally and expressly waive and reject any entitlement to recover interest from each other in respect of the CMD-i Account and/or FD-i Account.

- 33.6 It is agreed and acknowledged that the CMD-i and/or FD-i arrangement and each Commodity Murabahah Transaction is not intended to be, and shall not be, governed by the Rules of the London Metal Exchange or any other recognised exchange on which the Commodity is traded (as the same may be supplemented or amended from time to time) and is an OTC (over-the-counter) contract.
- 33.7 Time wherever mentioned shall be of the essence.
- 33.8 Any notice given in relation to the CMD-i Account and/or FD-i Account shall, except where communication by telephone is expressly contemplated, be given in writing in accordance with Clause 20.
- 33.9 The Bank is authorised, but not obliged, to rely upon and act on all instructions and correspondence from the Customer transmitted by facsimile.
- 33.10 The Customer shall release the Bank from and indemnify and hold the Bank harmless from and against all actions, suits, proceedings, costs (including legal fees), claims, demands, charges, expenses, losses, damages and liabilities however arising (unless due to the gross negligence or willful default of the Bank) in consequence of, or in any way related to:
- (a) The Bank having acted in good faith in accordance with the Customer's written facsimile instruction(s), notwithstanding that such instruction(s), as above have been initiated or transmitted in error or fraudulently altered, misunderstood or distorted in the lines of communication or transmission;
 - (b) The Bank having refrained from acting in accordance with the Customer's written facsimile instruction(s) by reason of failure of either actual transmission thereof to the Bank or receipt by the Bank for whatever reason, whether connected to the fault or failure or other cause connected to the sending or receiving machine or otherwise; or
 - (c) The Customer's failure to forward all original copies of facsimile instruction(s) to the Bank within such period as the Bank may specify.
- 33.11 Without prejudice to Clause 12 of the General Terms and Conditions, these terms and conditions are personal to the Customer and its rights and obligations hereunder shall not be assignable or transferable except with the prior consent of the Bank.
- 33.12 Unless otherwise defined herein, terms used herein shall have the same meaning as used in the Application Form relating to the CMD-i Account/arrangement and/or FD-i Account/arrangement. In the event of any inconsistency, these Terms and Conditions and the meanings of any terms ascribed herein shall prevail over the terms of or meanings ascribed in such Application Form.

ADDITIONAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS GOVERNING CIMB BUSINESS CURRENT ACCOUNT-i, CIMB BUSINESS PLUS CURRENT ACCOUNT-i, CIMB BUSINESSGO-i ACCOUNT, CIMB SME-i ACCOUNT, CIMB USD BUSINESSGO-i ACCOUNT & CIMB CORPORATE CURRENT ACCOUNT-i

34. General

- 34.1 The net deposit (being the total amount of deposits less the total amount of withdrawals, provided that such amount is greater than zero) ('Net Deposit') in the CIMB Business Current Account-i, CIMB Business Plus Current Account-i, CIMB BusinessGo-i Account, CIMB SME-i Account, CIMB USD BusinessGo-i Account or CIMB Corporate Current Account-i (each a 'CM CASA') on any day (as at a time determined by the Bank in its absolute discretion, the 'Cut-off Time') shall be applied towards a Tawarruq vis-à-vis Commodity Murabahah (monetisation) transaction described in Clause 34.2 ('Commodity Murabahah Transaction') where the commodity used is Crude Palm Oil or other Shariah-compliant commodities (other than Gold and Silver) ('Commodity'). The amount of Net Deposits on any day which is deposited into the CM CASA after the Cut-off Time shall be deemed to have been deposited into the CM CASA on the immediately following day for the purposes of calculating the Net Deposit or Net Withdrawal (as defined below) on such day.
- 34.2 The Customer agrees that the Bank (as the Customer's agent) will, on behalf of the Customer, within two Business Days (or any other period as the Bank may determine in its sole and absolute discretion) of the Net Deposit being made (the 'Deposit Date'), apply the Net Deposit towards the purchase of a Commodity. Upon purchase of the Commodity by the Bank (as the Customer's agent), the Bank gives a promise (Wa'ad) to the Customer to purchase the Commodity from the Customer under a Murabahah contract for an amount equal to the aggregate of:
- (a) the amount paid by the Bank (as the Customer's agent) for the Commodity ('Cost Price'); and
 - (b) a profit amount determined by the Bank ('Profit Amount'),
- and on a deferred payment basis as set out in Clause 36 and Clause 38.
- 34.3 The Customer agrees that until the Bank applies the Net Deposit towards the purchase of a Commodity in accordance with Clause 34.2, such Net Deposit will be governed by the Shariah principle of Wadiah (guaranteed safekeeping).

35. Transactions

- 35.1 The Customer appoints the Bank to act as the Customer's agent for the purchase and sale of the Commodity in accordance with these Terms and Conditions. The Bank will only act as the Customer's agent and will not assume, or be deemed to have assumed, any additional liabilities or obligations to, or have any special relationship with the Customer, other than those for which specific provision is made in these Terms and Conditions.

35.2 As the Customer's agent, the Bank shall, during the tenure of the CM CASA including the tenure of any renewal in accordance with the terms and conditions herein, have the following power and authority:

(a) to do and execute all acts with respect to the purchase of the Commodity on a cash basis ('Purchase Transaction(s)') through purchase agreements, certificates and other instruments and to negotiate with commodity traders or suppliers and execute all acts on behalf of the Customer in relation thereto, in each case as fully as the Customer would have been able to do himself/herself; and

(b) to sell the Commodity on deferred payment terms to the Bank for an amount equal to the aggregate of the Cost Price and Profit Amount ('Murabahah Sale Price') and to do and execute all acts in relation thereto ('Sale Transaction(s)') on behalf of the Customer and in each case as fully as the Customer would have been able to do himself/herself.

35.3 The Bank will, in carrying out or effecting the Purchase Transaction(s) and/or Sale Transaction(s) as agent of the Customer, act in good faith and in the best interests of the Customer. Nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall require the Bank to act in any manner which is detrimental to its interests or which is contrary to any law or Regulation.

35.4 The Customer shall indemnify the Bank against all actions, suits, proceedings, costs (including legal fees), claims, demands, charges, expenses, losses, damages and liabilities howsoever arising brought or claimed by any party and/or incurred or sustained by the Bank as a result of the Purchase Transaction(s) and/or the Sale Transaction(s) as agent of the Customer or a breach by the Customer of his obligations herein. The indemnity in this Clause 35.4 shall survive the termination of any agency relationship between the Bank and the Customer, and any sums payable in relation thereto shall not be subject to any deduction whether by way of set-off, counterclaim or otherwise.

35.5 In the event the Customer wishes to take delivery of the Commodity, the Customer may do so provided that:

(a) the Bank shall have received a written notice from the Customer stating (i) the revocation of the Bank's appointment as agent of the Customer for the purposes of the Sale Transaction(s), (ii) the formal request for physical delivery of the Commodity and (iii) the address to which the Commodity shall be delivered. Such written notice must be received by the Bank at least five (5) Business Days prior to the date the Bank executes a Sale Transaction;

(b) the Customer shall bear the full cost of the delivery of the Commodity including but not limited to brokerage, storage, transportation and other related costs ('Costs'). For this purpose, the Customer shall deposit with the Bank such sum ('Deposit') as may be determined by the Bank, and the Deposit shall be used by the Bank to pay for the Costs. In the event the Costs exceed the Deposit, the Customer shall pay to the Bank such shortfall upon demand. In the event the Deposit exceeds the Costs, such surplus shall be refunded to the Customer; and

(c) delivery of the Commodity shall be done by the Bank in the manner and at such time as may be determined by the Bank at its sole discretion.

35.6 Upon delivery of the Commodity (as may be determined by the Bank at its sole discretion), the CM CASA shall be terminated by the Bank and where applicable, the provisions under Clause 39 shall apply.

36. Cost Price Renewal

36.1 Subject to Clause 37, the Bank will pay the Cost Price in respect of each Commodity Murabahah Transaction to the Customer on either of the following dates (each a 'Cost Price Payment Date')

(a) the last day of the calendar month of the relevant Deposit Date ('Maturity Date'); or

(b) any date earlier than the Maturity Date on which the Bank chooses (in its absolute discretion) to pay the Cost Price pursuant to the Bank exercising its rights to terminate the CM CASA in accordance with the terms and conditions herein.

36.2 The Customer agrees that the Customer is deemed, on each Cost Price Payment Date:

(a) to have received payment of the relevant Cost Price from the Bank in fulfilment of the Bank's payment obligations under Clause 36.1; and

(b) immediately upon receipt of such Cost Price, to have deposited the Cost Price into the CM CASA.

For the avoidance of doubt, the amount deemed to have been deposited into the CM CASA on each Cost Price Payment Date shall form part of the total amount of deposits into the CM CASA on that Cost Price Payment Date for the purposes of calculating the Net Deposits or Net Withdrawals (as defined below) on that Cost Price Payment Date. Within two Business Days (or any other period as the Bank may determine in its sole and absolute discretion) after each Cost Price Payment Date, the Bank shall re-execute the Commodity Murabahah Transaction in accordance with the terms and conditions herein.

37. Withdrawal

37.1 The Cost Price may be withdrawn at any time by the Customer subject to the terms set out in Clause 38.4 below. The net withdrawal (being the total amount of withdrawals less the total amount of deposits, provided that such amount is greater than zero) ('Net Withdrawal') from the CM CASA on any day (as at the Cut-off Time) is deemed to be a demand by the Customer for payment of an amount of the Cost Price portion of the outstanding Murabahah Sale Price(s) in the order set out in Clause 37.2. That payment shall be equal to the lower of the amount of the Net Withdrawal or the Cost Price portion of the outstanding Murabahah Sale Price(s). The amount of Net Withdrawals on any day which is withdrawn from the CM CASA after the Cutoff Time shall be deemed to have been withdrawn from the CM CASA on the immediate following day for the purposes of calculating the Net Deposit or Net Withdrawal on such day.

37.2 Any Net Withdrawal shall reduce the Cost Price portion of the outstanding Murabahah Sale Price(s) in chronological order of when the Murabahah Sale Price(s) arose. For the avoidance of doubt, the Cost Price portion of a Murabahah Sale Price (after the preceding Murabahah Sale Price) will not be reduced by virtue of a Net Withdrawal unless and until the Cost Price portion of the preceding Murabahah Sale Price has been reduced to zero.

37.3 If:

(a) the Net Withdrawal from the CM CASA on any day (as at the Cut-off Time) exceeds the amount of the Cost Price portion of the outstanding Murabahah Sale Price(s) (such excess amount, the 'Excess Amount'); and

(b) the Bank has not yet applied any Net Deposit towards the purchase of a Commodity in accordance with Clause 34.2 (such unapplied amount, the 'Pending Amount'), then the Customer shall be deemed to have cancelled its instructions to the Bank to apply (as the Customer's agent) an amount equal to the lower of the Excess Amount and the Pending Amount towards the purchase of a Commodity ('Cancelled Amount'), provided that the Bank has not yet applied (as the Customer's agent) the Cancelled Amount towards the purchase of a Commodity. The Bank shall not be obligated to provide any return to the Customer in respect of the Cancelled Amount. However, the Bank may, at its sole and absolute discretion, grant a Hibah to the Customer.

38. Profit Payment

38.1 The Profit Amount in respect of each Commodity Murabahah Transaction will be deemed to accrue on a daily basis from the relevant Deposit Date.

38.2 The Bank will pay accrued Profit Amounts on outstanding Commodity Murabahah Transactions to the Customer on the last day of the calendar month of the relevant Deposit Date into the CM CASA. For the avoidance of doubt, the Profit Amounts deposited into the CM CASA shall form part of the total amount of deposits into the CM CASA on that date for the purposes of calculating the Net Deposits or Net Withdrawals on that date.

38.3 The Bank will purchase the Commodity from the Customer and all payments to be made by the Bank (in its capacity as purchaser) to the Customer in connection with any Sale Transaction shall be made without any set-off or counterclaim, and in immediately available and transferable funds for good value on the due date. Such payments will be made to the account of the Customer held with the Bank and the details of which have been notified to the Bank.

38.4 If the Cost Price is withdrawn by the Customer or paid by the Bank prior to the Maturity Date in accordance with the terms and conditions herein, the Customer agrees to provide rebate/ibra' based on the following formula:

$$\text{Rebate/ibra}' = C \times R \times (t / T)$$

C = Cost Price

R = Profit rate (%)

t = Number of days from withdrawal date to the last day of the same calendar month (inclusive)

T = Total number of days in a year

38.5 The Customer hereby agrees that the Bank's determination of any amount payable to the Customer in respect of the CM CASA save for manifest error shall be final, conclusive and binding against the Customer.

39. Termination of Account

39.1 Termination of the CM CASA will be without prejudice to any rights or obligations of a party accrued up to the date of termination.

39.2 The Customer agrees that the Bank reserves the right to terminate any account at the absolute discretion of the Bank by notifying the Customer without giving any reason.

39.3 The Customer shall comply with all of the Bank's requirements, if any, for the termination of the account.

40. Miscellaneous

40.1 The Customer and the Bank agree that no proceeds from the sale of the Commodity or any transactions contemplated herein shall be invested in any non-Shariah compliant securities or financial instruments.

40.2 These Additional Terms and Conditions governing the CM CASA are intended to be wholly Shariah-compliant. The Customer and the Bank agree that their respective rights and obligations herein are intended to be and subject to and in conformity with Shariah (such Shariah as determined by the Shariah Committee of the Bank). The parties hereto hereby irrevocably, unconditionally and expressly waive and reject any entitlement to recover interest from each other in respect of the CM CASA.

- 40.3 If any payment due from the Bank as purchaser under any Sale Transaction falls on a day which is not a Business Day, the payment shall be made on the next succeeding Business Day save where the next succeeding Business Day falls in the next calendar month, in which event the payment shall be due and made on the Business Day immediately preceding the due date.
- 40.4 It is agreed and acknowledged that the CM CASA arrangement and each Commodity Murabahah Transaction is not intended to be, and shall not be, governed by the Rules of the London Metal Exchange or any other recognised exchange on which the Commodity is traded (as the same may be supplemented or amended from time to time) and is an OTC (over-the-counter) contract.
- 40.5 Time wherever mentioned shall be of the essence.
- 40.6 Any notice given in relation to the CM CASA shall, except where communication by telephone is expressly contemplated, be given in writing in accordance with Clause 20.
- 40.7 The Bank is authorised, but not obliged, to rely upon and act on all instructions and correspondence from the Customer transmitted by facsimile.
- 40.8 The Customer shall release the Bank from and indemnify and hold the Bank harmless from and against all actions, suits, proceedings, costs (including legal fees), claims, demands, charges, expenses, losses, damages and liabilities however arising (unless due to the gross negligence or willful default of the Bank) in consequence of, or in any way related to:
- (a) The Bank having acted in good faith in accordance with the Customer's written instruction(s), notwithstanding that such instruction(s), as above have been initiated or transmitted in error or fraudulently altered, misunderstood or distorted in the lines of communication or transmission or posting;
 - (b) The Bank having refrained from acting in accordance with the Customer's written instruction(s) by reason of failure of either actual transmission thereof to the Bank or receipt by the Bank for whatever reason, whether connected to the fault or failure or other cause connected to the sending or receiving machine or posting or other modes of transmission or otherwise; or
 - (c) The Customer's failure to forward all original copies of instruction(s) to the Bank within such period as the Bank may specify.
- 40.9 Without prejudice to Clause 16, these Terms and Conditions are personal to the Customer and its rights and obligations hereunder shall not be assignable or transferable except with the prior written consent of the Bank.
- 40.10 Unless otherwise defined herein, terms used herein shall have the same meaning as used in the Application Form relating to the CM CASA. In the event of any inconsistency, these Terms and Conditions and the meanings of any terms ascribed herein shall prevail over the terms of or meanings ascribed in such Application Form.

THESE TERMS ESTABLISH THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS UNDER WHICH THE BANK'S WEB SITE MAY BE USED. USE OF THE SERVICES (AS HEREINAFTER DEFINED) AND THE ELECTRONIC BANKING (AS HEREINAFTER DEFINED) IMPLIES THAT YOU ACCEPT THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS. IF YOU DO NOT ACCEPT THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS, DO NOT USE THE SERVICES OR THE ELECTRONIC BANKING. NOTWITHSTANDING ANYTHING TO THE CONTRARY HEREIN, THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS SHALL NOT AFFECT OR DIMINISH IN ANY WAY THE RIGHTS OF CIMB BANK BERHAD, SINGAPORE BRANCH REFERRED TO OR SET OUT IN ITS WEBSITE (INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION ANY EXCLUSIONS, DISCLAIMERS AND LIMITATIONS OF ANY LIABILITIES OF THE BANK).

By signing the application form provided by CIMB Bank Berhad, Singapore Branch (hereinafter referred to as the "Bank") in relation to the use of the Services (as defined below) and any amendments thereto, including but not limited to the application form for the use of BizChannel@CIMB service (hereinafter referred to as the "Application Form for the Use of Services"), we (hereinafter referred to as "Customer") agree to be subject to and bound by all provisions of these terms and conditions for the use of the Services (hereinafter referred to as "Terms and Conditions").

These Terms and Conditions shall apply in relation to the electronic banking service made available by the Bank enabling the Customer to communicate with the Bank via computer or other electronic media, either by using internet communication media or other communication media (the "Electronic Banking"), to any banking or other facility product or service provided to the Customer by the Bank using the Electronic Banking (the "Services") (including such Services which have been or would be provided to the Customer from time to time) and to the accounts (which includes Islamic accounts) that have been opened and designated by the Customer in the Application Form for the Use of Services to be able to be used in transactions (the "Accounts") (including any Accounts which may be subsequently opened). The terms and conditions in relation to the provision of the BizChannel@CIMB service may be defined in more detail in the BizChannel@CIMB Terms and Conditions (as hereinafter set out). For the avoidance of doubt, the Accounts include any BizChannel Accounts (as defined below). All capitalized terms in the BizChannel@ CIMB Terms and Conditions and their respective attachments as well as any other materials, including user guides, manuals, data, processes and other documents provided by the Bank (hereinafter referred to as "Materials") shall have the same meaning as defined herein, all of which shall be subject to amendment from time to time, unless otherwise defined therein. In the event of inconsistency between the provisions of these Terms and Conditions and those of the BizChannel@CIMB Terms and Conditions, the provisions of the BizChannel@CIMB Terms and Conditions shall prevail.

1. Authorized Parties. The Customer may from time to time or when signing the Application Form for the Use of Services appoint a party or parties to represent the Customer in carrying out the access or transactions related to the Services including but not limited to (i) signing the relevant documents in relation to the provision of the Services, and (ii) receiving the user IDs, Corporate IDs, passwords or other security codes or keys for the purposes of accessing the data or giving instructions in connection with the Services (such parties given the authority by the Customer to represent the Customer shall hereinafter be referred to as the "Authorized Parties" and includes any User of the BizChannel@CIMB service, and any instructions given for and on behalf of the Customer in connection with the Services including those in relation to the Account shall be referred to as the "Instruction" and includes any Special Instruction (as defined below)), provided that the documents evidencing the grant of authority to the Authorized Parties and its limitations, if any, and the validity of their signatures and such other documents and approvals as may be required by the Bank shall be provided to the Bank. The Customer shall be responsible for all the actions of the Authorized Parties and shall procure that the Authorized Parties are aware of and in compliance with these Terms and Conditions. In the event that the Customer does not appoint any Authorized Parties, all signatories of the Application Form for the Use of Services shall be deemed as the Authorized Parties and shall be allowed to act on behalf of the Customer with no restrictions. The Customer hereby grants power and authority to the Bank to act on and to accept all Instructions apparently given by any Authorized Parties in respect of any Service. The Customer shall notify the Bank of any changes in relation to the Authorized Parties no later than 15 days prior to implementing such change. The Bank shall not have any obligations whatsoever to act upon and implement any change of Authorized Parties unless notice has been given to the Bank in a form prescribed by or acceptable to the Bank or in accordance with the Bank's operational procedures and unless and until the Bank is satisfied that such change has been duly authorized by the Customer.

2. Access to Services

The Customer agrees to use the Materials and the Services solely for the purposes allowed by and in accordance with these Terms and Conditions and (if applicable) the Materials. The Bank shall only accept an Instruction if it has been effected through the Electronic Banking (using the appropriate Security Instruments (as defined below) in accordance with these Terms and Conditions) and shall not be obliged to carry out any Instruction that is delivered through a different procedure or that is not in accordance with procedures as stipulated in these Terms and Conditions and (if applicable) the Materials or that have not been agreed in writing. However, notwithstanding the absence of a written agreement, the Customer hereby agrees that in the event that the Bank receives a request from the Authorized Parties to implement any Instruction given without following a written procedure (hereinafter referred to as “Special Instruction”) for any reason whatsoever, the Customer shall be bound by the aforementioned Special Instruction if so carried out by the Bank and will indemnify and release the Bank from any loss, responsibility, claim, damage, proceeding or expenses (including legal fees, costs and expenses on a full indemnity basis) in connection with the implementation of the Special Instruction. The Bank may at its absolute discretion implement any Instruction by applying a payment system or via an intermediary or agent of the Bank.

The Bank shall provide the Authorized Parties with the procedures and security instruments including but not limited to passwords, codes and the other methods of access (the “Security Instruments”) to enable the Customer to use the Services. The Security Instruments shall be confidential in nature and the Customer shall agree to procure that no person shall be permitted to have or shall have access to or knowledge of any Security Instrument except the Authorized Parties. Further, the Customer shall procure that each Authorized Party shall not disclose the Security Instruments to, or allow the use of or access to the Services by, any person except the Authorized Parties and shall take all steps necessary to safeguard the Security Instruments at all times, including without limitation changing all passwords regularly and as and when the Services require so and not choosing the same password as used before, taking care not to choose a password which is likely to be guessed by anyone trying to access or use the Services by pretending to be one of the Authorized Parties and not recording the Security Instruments in a way that could make them recognizable by someone else as the Security Instruments. The Customer shall procure that each Authorized Party shall immediately after such Authorized Party discovers or suspects that any unauthorized person may have acquired access to or knowledge of the Security Instrument or that there is any unauthorized access to the Electronic Banking and the Services, unauthorized transaction or unauthorized Instruction, inform the Bank and the Bank may thereafter in its absolute discretion suspend the provision of the Services to the Customer until further notice. For this purpose, the Customer shall, inter alia, check the bank statements for all Accounts for any unauthorized transactions. The Customer agrees to comply immediately with all reasonable requests for assistance from the Bank and the relevant authorities in trying to recover any losses or to identify actual or potential breaches of security.

The Customer shall acknowledge that the Security Instruments provided by the Bank are intended to verify the apparent source of a communication rather than to detect errors in the transmission or the contents of the Instruction. The Bank shall not be obliged to detect errors in the contents of the Instructions and shall not be liable for any loss or damage to the Customer as a result of any duplication, incompleteness, ambiguity, inadequacy or inaccuracy of the Instructions. The Customer shall agree to be bound by all Instructions, including without limitation payment orders executed on its behalf. The Bank shall be entitled to rely on and treat any Instruction made, submitted or effected by use of any Security Instrument as having been made, submitted or effected by the Authorized Parties for and on behalf of the Customer unless notice of the loss of such Security Instrument has been given in such form and by such means as the Bank may deem satisfactory and has been received by the Bank within such amount of time in advance of such Instruction as the Bank would reasonably require (having regard to all the circumstances then prevailing) to enable it to take appropriate action to prevent such Instruction from being received, acted upon and implemented, and the Bank is satisfied that all security procedures described in these Terms and Conditions and (if applicable) the Materials have been faithfully observed by the Customer. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Customer shall be held liable for all losses due to unauthorized use if the Customer or any of the Authorized Parties has acted fraudulently or with gross negligence or if any of them are in wilful default of any of the security obligations described in these Terms and Conditions and (if applicable) the Materials. The Bank shall not be liable at any time for any direct, incidental, consequential or special losses even if it has been notified of the possibility of such damages.

The Bank reserves the right to terminate, suspend, cancel, decline to renew or replace any Security Instrument with or without prior notice to the Customer or the Authorized Parties and without giving any reason therefor. The Customer shall procure that the Authorized Parties shall not after the termination of any Service or Account use the Security Instrument in relation to such Service or Account. The Bank shall have no liability for breach of any implied term as to the satisfactory quality, merchantability or fitness for purpose of any Security Instrument.

The Bank shall have the right to deactivate, suspend or terminate the access or use of the Electronic Banking at any time either with respect to any Service or generally, without any prior notice being given to the Customer. The Electronic Banking with respect to any Service or generally may be varied by the Bank at any time by giving notice thereof to the Customer.

The Customer shall ensure that any computer or other device used to access the Services is free of any computer virus or similar device or software including without limitation dangerous files, software bombs, Trojan horses and worms (the “Unauthorized Content”), is adequately protected against acquiring any Unauthorized Content and adequately maintained in every way. In the event that the Customer is aware of the existence or occurrence of any Unauthorized Content, the Customer shall be obliged to immediately inform the Bank. The Bank shall not have any obligation to monitor, supervise or review the use of and access to the Services by the Customer. However, the Bank shall have the right to make changes to or delete the Unauthorized Contents without any prior notice being given to the Customer and to monitor all internet communications including web and email traffic into and out of its domains in order to, inter alia, maintain the security of the Electronic Banking, the Services and such other systems, protect the Bank’s staff, record transactions and where necessary, prevent and detect crime or unauthorized activities.

3. Account

In the event of inconsistency between the provisions of these terms and conditions and those of the terms and conditions that apply to the Accounts, the provisions of these terms and conditions shall prevail, subject to the laws and regulations applicable from time to time in the jurisdiction of the location of the Account, including but not limited to any currency controls.

In the event that the Services are used to execute any transaction with respect to third party accounts (the “Third Party Account”) including but not limited to the debiting of any Third Party Account with the Bank, the Customer hereby agrees to provide to the Bank the documents evidencing the grant of authority to the Customer and its limitations, if any, and such other documents and approvals as may be required by the Bank to the satisfaction of the Bank failing which the Bank shall have no obligation to provide the Services for such transactions relating to Third Party Accounts. The Customer will indemnify and release the Bank from any loss, responsibility, claim, damage, proceeding or expenses (including legal fees, costs and expenses on a full indemnity basis) in connection with the execution of all transactions with respect to the Third Party Accounts. By signing any forms or applications in connection with the execution of transactions with respect to the Third Party Accounts, the party in whose name the Third Party Accounts are held (the “Third Party”) agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions insofar as these Terms and Conditions are applicable to them, including where they allow the Bank to disclose the details of the Third Party Account to the Customer.

4. Cost

The Customer shall agree to pay all fees and costs at such rates and in such manner as may be determined by the Bank from time to time for the Services rendered, the execution of any Instruction, the provision of any Security Instrument and such other matters as the Bank may determine from time to time. The fees and costs imposed by the Bank shall be exclusive of any applicable taxes, if any, imposed on the Services, which shall be payable by the Customer. The Bank shall be entitled to debit any fees and costs due and payable by the Customer to the Bank from any Account at any time without prior notice.

5. Overdraft/Excess

The Customer shall not use the Services or give any Instruction which may create an unauthorized overdraft/excess on any of the Accounts and the Bank is entitled to refuse any Instruction that would do so.

6. Procedure

The Customer and the Bank agree that the Services shall be provided by means of delivery, communications and security as contained in the Materials which shall be subject to change from time to time by the Bank and in accordance with the procedures in these Terms and Conditions and (if applicable) the Materials (the procedures set forth in these Terms and Conditions and (if applicable) the Material shall collectively be referred to as the “Procedures”). The Customer shall comply with the Procedures when accessing or using the Services and shall grant the authority to the Bank to act in accordance with the Procedures where applicable and as appropriate, to debit the Accounts. The Bank shall reserve the right to change the Procedures at its sole discretion without any prior warning or notice being given to the Customer.

7. Cancellation or Change of Instructions

The Customer shall not be entitled to nullify or change any Instruction after such Instruction has been submitted to the Bank. The Bank shall not be liable for any losses suffered or costs incurred by the Customer or any other third party as a result of the implementation of any Instruction which the Customer subsequently wishes to nullify or change.

8. Materials

The Materials shall be the personal and confidential property of the Bank. The Customer shall agree to maintain the confidentiality of the Materials and limit access to the Materials only to the Authorized Parties and its employees (who shall be subject to the confidentiality obligations in these Terms and Conditions) who require access for the purpose of the use of the Services.

9. Instructions

The Customer agrees that the Bank is not obliged to obtain any further written or other confirmation from the Customer upon the receipt of the Instruction even if such Instruction is not actually given by the Authorized Parties or authorized by the Customer. The Bank shall be entitled (but not obliged) to verify and be satisfied with respect to the identity of the person purporting to give any Instruction or the representation of authority of any Authorized Party and the Bank may defer relying or acting upon or carrying out any Instruction unless and until it is satisfied as to the matters on which it had sought verification regardless of whether it is under any obligation to the Customer to act upon or carry out that Instruction. The Customer shall be responsible for the accuracy, adequacy, completeness, clarity, consistency and validity of the Instruction and shall be obliged to make sure that the Instructions are delivered appropriately in accordance with the mechanism as set forth in these Terms and Conditions and (if applicable) the Materials or the other relevant media provided by the Bank. Where any Instruction is ambiguous or inconsistent with any other Instruction, the Bank shall be entitled to rely, act on or carry out any Instruction in accordance with any reasonable interpretation or refuse to act on or carry out the Instruction until it receives a fresh Instruction in such form and manner required by or acceptable to it. The Bank shall not be liable for the losses or damages to the Customer or any other party due to the delay, refusal, error or failure to implement the Instruction due to the mistake or negligence of the Customer, the inaccuracy, inadequacy, incompleteness, ambiguity, inconsistency or invalidity of any Instruction or the performance of transaction not desired by the Customer. The Bank may, in its absolute discretion and without liability, refuse to act on or delay acting on any Instruction if it knows of or suspects a breach of security in respect of or in connection with the operation of one or more of the Accounts or the Services generally or if it has terminated the agreement for the Bank to provide Services to the Customer. All Instructions given to the Bank and transactions effected or made by the Customer on any day after the time stipulated by the Bank as the latest time by which the Instructions or transactions on that day should be effected or made may at the Bank's discretion be treated as given or effected on the next Business Day.

The Customer may not reproduce any part of the Licensed Program or relevant Licensed Objects, except two copies for the purpose of archives provided that notifications concerning copyright and other property of the Bank must be included in all copies. The Bank shall retain all intellectual property rights to the Licensed Program and the Licensed Object and shall not be deemed to transfer or have transferred such intellectual property rights to the Customer under any circumstances.
- 10.3 Confidentiality. Save as otherwise provided in these Terms and Conditions, the Customer shall agree not to alter, modify, duplicate or imitate the Licensed Objects and shall maintain the confidentiality of and restrict the access to the Licensed Objects only to its employees (who shall be subject to the confidentiality obligations in these Terms and Conditions) who require access to the use of the Licensed Objects in relation to the Services, except to the extent such Licensed Objects have become public property or where the Customer is required to do otherwise by law or court proceedings.

The Customer shall not reverse, manipulate, modify, decompile, reverse engineer or divide the Licensed Program. If the Customer accesses the Services from outside Singapore, the Customer is responsible for complying with the local laws of that country, including but not limited to obtaining any license needed for the import or export of the Licensed Objects to that country.

The Customer agrees that the use of the Licensed Program shall mean the commencement of the relevant Service through the Licensed Program by the Customer. The Customer shall use the Licensed Objects only in connection with accessing the Services. The Customer is responsible for ensuring that the Licensed Program is compatible with the Equipment and if it is not, the Customer shall compensate the Bank for any losses suffered as a result. The Bank shall not be liable for any losses suffered or costs incurred by the Customer as a result of any incompatibility between the Licensed Program and the Equipment.

and the Customer shall be liable for all losses (including foreign exchange losses), damages, costs (including replacement and/or unwinding costs) and fees incurred in connection therewith. The Bank shall be entitled to debit any such fees and costs due and payable by the Customer to the Bank from any BizChannel Account at any time without prior notice.

In the event that the Foreign Exchange Transaction is made after the business hours of the Bank's counter or on Saturday, Sunday or holiday on which the Bank does not operate, the Bank shall have the right not to carry out or even nullify the performance of the transaction. The Customer hereby indemnifies and releases the Bank from any risk or compensation claims which may arise from the non-performance or inability to execute the Foreign Exchange Transactions through BizChannel@CIMB service in such an event.

16. In the event of disruption of communication or transmission systems or the occurrence of other conditions that led to the failure or inability to implement the access or transaction through BizChannel@CIMB service in a satisfactory manner, the Customer may (subject to approval by the Bank) continue the implementation of the transaction through the branches or counters of the Bank, by confirming to the Bank the status, condition or process of the transactions that have been previously implemented using BizChannel@CIMB service.

1. Participating Accounts. The Participating Accounts in scope for this Programme are listed in Schedule 1 of the Programme Letter (as amended and agreed by the Bank from time to time), subject to eligibility review by the Bank. The availability of this Programme, eligibility of Participating Accounts and availability of interest/profit enhancement of individual Participating Accounts are subject to local laws and regulations and such other information or documentation as the Bank may reasonably require.

2. Non-reliance. The Customer and the Participating Accounts owners will make their own assessment of the legal, regulatory, tax, accounting, and other implications of this Programme and inclusion of the Participating Accounts.

3. Interest/Profit Tier Determination. On each Business Day (as defined below), the end-of-day credit balances of the Participating Accounts are notionally aggregated to derive the aggregate credit balance ("Aggregated Credit Balance") for determining the interest/profit rate and if applicable, interest/profit rate tier for the structure. If any of the Participating Accounts are overdrawn, such Participating Account will not be included in the calculation of the Aggregated Credit Balance and the overdraft rate will be applied separately, if applicable. The interest/profit rate and if applicable, interest/profit rate tiers and the corresponding Aggregated Credit Balance thresholds are set out in Schedule 2 of the Programme Letter. Prior to the application of this Programme, the Participating Account may or may not be interest/profit bearing. The interest/profit rate in Schedule 2 of the Programme Letter shall supersede the existing interest/profit rate (if any) which may be applicable in respect of the Participating Account. The Bank may at its sole and absolute discretion by notice to the Customer change the interest/profit rate and if applicable, the interest/profit rate tiers and the corresponding Aggregated Credit Balance Thresholds in Schedule 2 of the Programme Letter. For the purpose of the Programme Letter, a "Business Day" means any day on which banks in Singapore and the Bank are open for banking business.

4. Application of Interest/Profit Rates. Once the applicable interest/profit rate is determined, the corresponding interest/profit rate is applied to the end-of-day balance of each Participating Account (subject to any adjustment for back-value). Interest/profit will be accrued daily and posted to the Participating Account monthly.

5. Other Information. Detailed reports that show the daily aggregate balance, corresponding interest/profit tier, and interest/profit rate applied to each Participating Account can be accessed through BizChannel@CIMB platform. Reference should be made to the relevant account statements for the final record of interest/profit relevant to the Participating Accounts. The Customer shall verify each and every such statement and shall give the Bank written notice of any error or omission in any such statement within 14 days of the said statement. Where no such notice is received by the Bank within the said 14 days, such statement shall as against the Customer be deemed as true, correct and accurate and shall be conclusive evidence of the matters stated therein.

6. Representations and Warranties. In the event that the Customer is not the owner of its proposed Participating Account (the "Third Party Account"), the Customer agrees to provide to the Bank the documents evidencing the grant of authority to the Customer and its limitations, if any, and such other documents and approvals as may be required by the Bank to the satisfaction of the Bank failing which the Bank shall have no obligation to include such Third Party Account in the list of Participating Accounts for the Programme. The Customer will indemnify and release the Bank from any loss, responsibility, claim, damage, proceeding or expenses (including legal fees, costs and expenses on a full indemnity basis) in connection with the inclusion of Third Party Accounts under the Programme.

7. Accounts. If the Customer wishes to have an account either added or removed from the Programme, written instructions from the Customer are to be provided to the Bank. Upon acceptance of the Accounts by the Bank for the Programme, the Bank will issue a confirmation and such account is thereby deemed to be added to or removed from the list of Participating Accounts as set out Schedule 1 of the Programme Letter.

8. Instructions. For all instructions provided by the Customer in connection with this Programme, including adding or removing Participating Accounts, the Customer agrees that the Bank can conclusively rely on the Customer's authority to provide such instructions, that such instructions are authorized by the Participating Account owner, and the Customer will indemnify and release the Bank from any loss, responsibility, claim, damage, proceeding or expenses (including legal fees, costs and expenses on a full indemnity basis) in connection with such instruction provided by the Customer.
